What Does It Cost?

RASC fees are typically less than $350 per year and cover League, Club, Field and Referee fees. The $350 also covers coach's stipend, tournament fees and a uniform which includes two jerseys, shorts and socks.

New Director of Coaching!

RASC has recently hired Dan Bulley as the director of coaching. Dan is from Exeter, England and at age 17 signed with the professional club, Plymouth Argyle currently of the English Championship League. In 2007 and 2009, Dan played for Great Britain at the World University Games. He was captain for the Kalamazoo Outrage during the 2008 season. He is a recent graduate and MAC all conference player for the University of Buffalo. Dan is charged with leading the coaching cadre, developing technical training programs and organizing RASC Summer camps.

Private Indoor Facility!!!

RASC has access to its own indoor practice facility with the best quality turf on the market today. There will be no additional cost to use this facility, and it will be available all week long. Coaches will be scheduling practice times as the winter season approaches.
